

Isaiah

READ

- You might like to read Isaiah 6 or listen to it here.
- Isaiah means God is Salvation
- Isaiah was a prophet in the 8th century BC
 - He prophesied through the reigns of 4 kings of Judah - possibly for about 64 years.
 - We read many of his prophecies over the Advent and Christmas period
- In Isaiah 6 we hear of his call by God
 - He is overwhelmed by the glory and holiness of God
 - He is aware of his sin
 - His guilt is taken away and atoned for
 - He says to God 'here I am, send me'
 - He is commissioned by God
- As you read about Isaiah, what do you notice?

REFLECT

- You might like to read the passage once more and pause at a word or phrase that strikes you.
- Meditate over this word or phrase with God until you come to a point of stillness.
- What do you sense God's invitation to you might be and how do you want to respond?
- As you finish your time of prayer you might like to thank God for the life and writing of Isaiah and what God has to teach you through it.
- You might like to close your time of prayer by praying the Lord's Prayer.

RESPOND

- At some point this week you might like to pray practically with the narrative of the call and commission of Isaiah
- You could do this through collage, poetry, bible art journalling, or another creative approach
- You might also like to read Isaiah 61
- What does it mean to you to be clothed in garments of salvation? (Isaiah 61:10)
- How might God be asking you to know more deeply the God who is salvation?

ISAIAH

Awesome and awful God of salvation :

You make blind - you give sight.

You cause deafness - you bestow hearing.

You instigate ignorance - you enable knowing.

Give me eyes to see,

ears to hear.

a heart to understand.

Give me feet that will go where you send.
